. Evil hunts for a bride in the Amish countryside of Pennsylvania. It spies Kate, a beautiful, young teen but fails to find her alone. Furious, it manifests a scheme that bridges time and returns a married Kate and Harry Martin along with their four children to the mansion that houses its lust. Will teen sisters, Sara and Rachel and twin toddlers, Wesley and Wyatt, survive their first night with Evil as host? Will Harry and Kate remember their long forgotten Christian heritage in time or will Evil win all their souls? . . . enthralling plot unlike anything I've come across before. It's refreshing to find a work of fiction in the horror genre with strong Christian messages. W. Carrington.
