Mary Cardin, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mary Cardin had just begun to heal. She had recently separated from her husband, Chris, the man who had been the love of her life for over 30 years. Then, one phone call changed her life forever. The call came in around midnight from the New Mexico State Police. It was September, 2007. Christopher Lyle Cardin was missing. All evidence pointed to suicide. A black Chevy Avalanche with Pennsylvania license plates had been found at the Rio Grande Gorge Bridge in Taos, New Mexico. The vehicle had reportedly been parked at the bridge for two days, unattended. The truck belonged to Chris. The days and months that followed that phone call would prove to be the test of a lifetime for Mary Cardin. How does a woman survive the not knowing, the search and the discovery of the devastating truth that her husband has taken his own life? In Peace, My Final Gift, the title of this book and the title of her late husband s final work of art, Mary Cardin shares her very personal story of heartache, betrayal, and love. Peace, My Final Gift is a woman s memoir and a story of resiliency. Mary Cardin s experience and her healing process can guide the reader to a renewed sense of faith and certainty, deepening our understanding that even when we are faced with paralyzing loss, we can still find our healing path and walk courageously forward into a magnificent new life. Each one of us travels a unique path and has been assigned a specific life purpose. As we accept Mary Cardin s gift of peace through this writing, her process inspires all of...
