Not illustrated. 1880 Excerpt: . author on his production of a work of permanent utility and fame. --Law Magazine and Review. Mr. Joyce has produced not a treatise but a complete and compendious exposition of the Law and Practice of Injunctions both in equity and common law. Part III. is devoted to the practice of the Courts. Contains an amount of valuable and technical matter nowhere else collected. This work, considered either as to its matter or manner of execution, is no ordinary work. It is a complete and exhaustive treatise both as to the law and the practice of granting injunctions. It must supersede all other works on the subject. The terse statement of the practice will be found of incalculable value. We know of no book as suitable to supply a knowledge of the law of injunctions to our common law friends as Mr. Joyce s exhaustive work. It is alike indispensable to members of the Common Law and Equity Bars. Mr. Joyce s great work would be a casket without a key unless accompanied by a good index. His index Is very full and well arranged. We feel that this work is destined to take its place as a standard text-book, and the text-book on the particular subject of which it treats. The author deserves great credit for the very great labour bestowed upon it. The publishers, as usual, have acquitted themselves in a manner deserving of the high reputation they bear. --Canada Law Journal. From these...
