On a clear spring evening in 2189, Charles Edward Button came home half an hour late for his supper, tossed his hat to the robot butler who came out from behind the DoltAll, and announced that he had just bought a planet. His wife, Betty, was looking small and long-suffering on a plastic reproduction of a Victorian love-seat, and her cousin Aurelia, a large, handsome woman, was standing behind her protectively. Of course, he informed them, its not a big planet. But what a bargain! With real oceans, and two moons, and Real estate, real estate, real estate! Cousin Aurelias tart voice cut him off in mid-sentence. You know whats come of every one of your investments. Call the man right now and tell him you want your money back! Im afraid its too late. Charles avoided her eye. I bought it up at a tax-auction andwell, the government never refunds. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
