And the Forester and such officers as he may designate may in like manner revoke or cancel such documents for cause or at discretion as such documents may respectively provide. Regulation 78. The willful setting on fire, or causing to be set on fire, of any timber, brush, or grass, or leaving or suffering any fire to burn unattended near any timber or other inflammable material in a national forest is prohibited. Regulation 79. Camp fires must not be larger than necessary; must not be built in leaves, rotten wood, or other places where they are likely to spread, or against large or hollow logs, where it is difficult to be sure when they are completely out. In windy weather and in dangerous places camp fires must be confined to holes, or all vegetable matter must be cleared from the ground around them. A fire must never be left, even for a short absence, before it is completely extinguished. Regulation 80. Lumbermen, settlers, miners, prospectors, and other persons using the national forest are cautioned against making dangerous slashings, and must not fire them in very dry weather. If it is necessary to burn slashings ample...
