He pointed exultantly to those achievements in art, literature, science and philosophy which had made the Queen of the Grecian isles the teacher of the nations and the vital center of classic civilization. We do not copy our neighbors, said the ancient statesman, but are an example unto them; and we rely, not upon management nor trickery, but upon our own hearts and hands. Any similar exhortation that fosters in the hearts of Americans a deeper love for our Republic and a proper pride in its achievements should be warmly welcomed throughout the land. Nor can intelligent patriotism render a better service than to furnish a more accurate knowledge and kindle a more just appreciation of the determining factors in our national evolution. For a nation, like an individual, has a soul as well as a body. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
