Excerpt: .them--and in the using, judge their results. She spoke of the prominent place the doll should hold in the kindergarten. Given a doll, the child initiates his own problems, and through play is really working out the social and industrial problems of the race. After the lecture Miss Hill and Miss Ely, of Armour Institute, Chicago, who has been with Miss Hill during her trip, were guests of honor at a luncheon given by the Kindergarten Department. Covers were laid for about fifty. At each place were a dainty card and a tiny pink almond basket, made and painted by the girls. Sprays of quince and fern were strewn along the table connecting the pretty blossom-filled baskets. Around the room were big feathery, shaded clusters of almond and quince blossoms. During the luncheon a very enjoyable musical program was given by girls of the...
