Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Knight s Annotated Model Byelaws: Comprising the Model Series of the Local Government Board, Under the Public Health Acts; With Diagrams and Approved Additional and Alternative Clauses Twenty-Two years have elapsed since the first edition of this work made its appearance, and the book still stands alone as an authoritative exponent of official practice in connection with byelaws that are required by law to be confirmed by the Local Government Board. The now famous model code of byelaws which was issued by the Local Government Board in 1877 and subsequent years for the guidance of local authorities in framing byelaws under the Public Health Acts, has become the standard type to which most byelaws now conform, and it has brought about many improvements in the mode of constructing buildings and of carrying out sanitary arrangements. Soon after the Local Government Board model code was issued, it became apparent that, although the byelaws in themselves were simple enough, it was necessary that their aims and objects should be explained; and no one could do this better than those professional advisers of the Board who had been concerned in framing the model code itself. Hence it happened that Mr. Percival Gordon Smith, the architect of the Local Government Board, and Sir Richard Thorne-Thorne, who subsequently became the chief medical officer of the Board, set to work to produce an annotated edition of the official model series so far as sanitary matters were concerned. I was myself then in charge of the byelaw branch of the legal department of the Board, and was associated with my co-authors through all the previous editions of this work, until...
