The quirky poems of Dr. Beverly Kastelic Long s Get-A-Long Poems: And Other Conundrums of Childhood are relatable, laughable, and often quite outlandish. She effortlessly captures the misgivings and misfortunes of childhood with sing-song rhymes and nursery rhyme inspiration. Whether she s weaving tales of gypsies stealing her sister (only to quickly give her back), humorously exploring her brother s affinity for playing dot-to-dot with his chicken pox, or the tooth fairy and her life of crime, Beverly s simplistic words and colorfully woven tales are worthy of any child s nighttime reading ritual. Beverly first began creating poems to amuse her four small children. Get-A-Long Poems serves as a remembrance of her children s youth and of their antics, which did and still do provide her with endless inspiration. About the Author: Dr. Beverly Kastelic Long has been in the educational field for more than thirty-seven years, first as a teacher and then as a school administrator. Although she is now retired from her position as a school administrator, she continues to work alongside principals and teachers as a research associate in the areas of quality teaching and formative assessment, both of which she has dedicated much of career. Beverly and her husband, Robert, have four children: Robert (25), William (23), Benjamin (21), and Elizabeth (20).
